Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan coordinates a number of programs which are designed to make it as easy as possible for lawyers to volunteer their time pro bono. PBLs screens and directs low income clients to available programs.

CLINIC PROGRAM

DESCRIPTION: Volunteer lawyers attend regularly (e.g. a three hour session every two months) at a free legal clinic to meet with low-income clients and provide advice or, if so inclined, full pro bono representation. Volunteer clinic lawyers may also make referrals to the Panel Program for clients requiring additional assistance.
